GSAS Research Workshop Program
APPLICATION GUIDELINES
Research Workshops for Graduate Students and Faculty
Funded by the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences

WHO SHOULD APPLY
Two or more faculty members in the social sciences or humanities may apply for a grant of up to $5,000 to fund a research workshop for graduate students and faculty. The workshop should have a theme or subject focus, meet weekly or bi-weekly over the course of a year, and encourage the discussion of scholarly work in progress. The main focus of the workshop must be on the discussion of scholarly work in progress, including the work of six or more graduate student participants. One faculty member at a time may attend workshop sessions, but there must be at least two faculty members in charge of coordinating the workshop as a whole.

WHAT FUNDING WILL COVER
Funds may be used to cover such expenses as photocopying, modest refreshments, a small salary for a graduate student responsible for coordinating workshop activities (approximately $14 to $15/hr), and travel and lodging expenses for one or two outside visitors per semester. Honoraria for visiting speakers must be kept to a limit of $200.

APPLICATION DEADLINE
March 7, 2016, for funding to begin in the fall term of academic year 2016–2017.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE
Send a two to three page description of the proposed research and its budget to Maggie Dunphy by e-mail at mdunphy@fas.harvard.edu or by University mail to Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Smith Campus Center 350. The application must include:

- The Application Cover Sheet (attached).
- The title of the proposed workshop, a brief explanation of its purposes, and the schedule of proposed meetings.
- The names, titles, and departmental affiliations of at least two FAS faculty coordinators.
- Discussion of anticipated graduate student interest, including a list of student participants (minimum of six) and their departments, and how many of the meetings will be devoted to student presentations.
- A budget, including an explanation of each item, and the name of a financial administrator within the department who would be responsible for managing the workshop account.

TO RENEW A PREVIOUSLY FUNDED WORKSHOP
- To secure continued funding for an existing workshop, a reapplication must be submitted. To apply for continued funding, please include a report on workshop activities from the previous funding period; include details about the presentation of research by participating graduate students, a full list of the year’s meetings, names, and departmental affiliation of the student participants, and which of the meetings were devoted to student presentations. You should also include a summary of the workshop’s expenditures for the current year and an updated budget for the upcoming year. NOTE: If the grant funds have not been fully spent by the end of the workshop period, the unspent balance will be transferred back to GSAS at yearend to be used for future workshops.

FURTHER INFORMATION
If you have questions, please contact Associate Dean of Academic Programs and Diversity Sheila Thomas at sthomas@fas.harvard.edu or 496-9909.
