DAVIS CENTER FOR RUSSIAN AND EURASIAN STUDIES
Graduate Research and Travel Grants
Deadline: Friday, February 12, 2016

FELLOWSHIP DESCRIPTION
The Davis Center for Russian and Eurasian Studies conducts an annual competition for grants to defray the cost of research and travel to the former Soviet Union or Eastern Europe. Grants are primarily intended to support research, but may be used to support language study in a foreign country for students who are not eligible to receive FLAS summer language fellowships. The maximum award is $4,000 and can be used during the summer of 2016 or during the 2016–2017 academic year for a minimum stay of six weeks.

ELIGIBILITY
The competition is open to Harvard doctoral and master's candidates. Funding priority is given to doctoral candidates in the humanities or social sciences, as well as to first-year master's degree candidates in the program in Regional Studies: Russia, Eastern Europe, and Central Asia (REECA).

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS
Please electronically submit to the Davis Center the completed Centralized Application for Research and Travel (CARAT) form with the specified supporting materials, including a resume or CV, a grade report, and a statement of purpose. Please arrange for one letter of recommendation to be uploaded to CARAT directly or emailed (from a university or professional email address) to Stephanie Plant (splant@fas.harvard.edu).

All application materials must be submitted by the application deadline (February 12, 2016).
