Newly-Admitted Students’ Day 2016

Congratulations on your acceptance to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS)! You are cordially invited to attend Newly-Admitted Students’ Day on April 1, 2016, from 2:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

At this event, you can learn about your program, student life, and housing options. You can tour Dudley House (the GSAS student center), visit the residence halls, meet GSAS student leaders, and attend a reception with faculty and the GSAS deans at Loeb House. Our staff is eager to welcome you to campus and share information that will assist you with your transition to Harvard. Watch your inbox for an e-mail from GSAS with an RSVP link.

Getting Here
The Graduate School of Arts and Sciences at Harvard University is located at 1350 Massachusetts Avenue in Harvard Square, Cambridge.

FLY
Flights arrive at Boston’s Logan Airport. Taxi rides take about 30 minutes and the fare is approximately $30-$40. Ride sharing services may cost less. The subway, known as the MBTA or the T, provides free service from all Logan Airport terminals to the South Station via the Silver Line Bus Rapid Transit. Take the Silver Line to South Station and transfer to the Red Line inbound toward Alewife. Take the train to the Harvard Square stop (visit mbta.com for schedules, maps, and rider tools).

RAIL
Trains arrive at Back Bay Station, North Station, or South Station. From there, take a taxi, ride sharing service, or the T (visit mbta.com for schedules, maps, and rider tools).

REGIONAL COACH SERVICE
Most long distance buses arrive at the South Station Bus Terminal. From there, take a taxi or ride sharing service or follow the signs for the MBTA station and take the Red Line inbound toward Alewife. Take the train to the Harvard Square stop (visit mbta.com for schedules, maps, and rider tools).

CAR
If traveling by car, please note that street parking is very limited in Harvard Square. A list of parking garages can be viewed at www.harvardsquare.com/parking. Visitors may also obtain temporary permits to park in Harvard parking lots and garages at transportation.harvard.edu/parking/visitors.

Where to Stay
Several hotels and bed and breakfasts are located near GSAS. For an interactive list of options, visit harvardsquare.com/accommodations. For further information or questions about where to stay or how to get here, please contact GSASNewAdmit@fas.harvard.edu.
